FORTUNE CONTRACT PUTS THE UNIVERSE AT YOUR FEET

DALTON, Ga.— Make a world of difference in your commercial interior with Universe, a new carpet design from Fortune Contract. Manufactured with fiber from Solutia Ultron, Universe features a striated effect that's out of this world. This design was inspired by Fortune's Space Guy collection, which offers a similar modernized patina.

"We designed Universe to be an alternative to Space Guy – for those who want just a textural pattern in their carpet," said Judith Ingalls, Fortune's vice-president of style and design. "By drawing on the palettes of our Space Guy and Drive products, Universe serves as an excellent building block for future carpet designs."

Universe features 36 colors and a random tip-sheared texture. The colors of Universe are components of those used in Space Guy and Drive, plus many more – all designed to extend the collection's color palette. The modern look of Universe makes it a stylish choice for most any commercial application, including corporate, retail and hospitality spaces.
